RURAL LAW ENFORCEMENT TRAINING CENTER

The University of Tennessee Law Enforcement Innovation Center (LEIC) was awarded a grant by the United States Department of Justice's Office of Community Oriented Policing Services (COPS Office) to provide training and technical assistance to rural areas across the United States.

LEIC has the ability to bring a variety of classes to agencies across the country, free of charge. Review the list of available classes, and contact our office to request to host one of these trainings. Please note your area must qualify as a rural area as defined by the United States Census Bureau.
